

Corporate Membership Subscription Table

Annual membership subscription is $2,400 ($2,568 with GST)

The minimum initial subscription period is from the month following the month of application to the coming June 30. However, if such period is less than six (6) months, the minimum subscription period is extended by another 12 months to the following June 30. For example, if you apply in August the minimum subscription period is 10 months. If you apply in February the minimum subscription period is 16 months.

Companies are encouraged to sign up for longer term subscription but each such extension must end on June 30 and the maximum subscription period is 60 months. No discount for subscription for the first 12 months, 10% discount for subscription between 13th to 24th months, 20% discount for subscription between 25th to 36th months, and subscription beyond the 36th month is entitled to 30% discount.

Examples:

1. A company sends in application form in August. Membership subscription shall start in September.
 - a. Minimum subscription period to next June 30 is 10 months, $$2,400 \times 10/12 = 2,000$.
 - b. For one extension of subscription by another 12 months to following June 30, the total subscription period is $10 + 12 = 22$ months, and the amount payable is $4,200 ($2,400 for first 12 months plus 10% off for the next 10 months).
 - c. For two extensions of subscription by 24 months, the total subscription period is $10 + 12 + 12 = 34$ months, and the amount payable is $6,160 ($2,400 for first 12 months, $2,160 for second 12 months, and 20% off for the next 10 months).
2. A company sends in application form in February. Membership subscription shall start in March.
 - a. Minimum subscription period is 16 months, $3,120 ($2,400 for first 12 months plus 10% off for the next 4 months).
 - b. For one extension by another 12 months, the total subscription period is $16 + 12 = 28$ months, and the amount payable is $5,200 ($2,400 for the first 12 months, 10% off for the second 12 months, and 20% off for the next 4 months).
