Singapore Exchange (SGX) has unveiled its road map for listed entities to provide climate-related disclosures based on the Task Force on Climate-Related Financial Disclosures (TCFD). Effective 1 January 2022, listed entities are subject to new compliance requirements following the amendments to SGX Listing Rules on climate disclosures. This module will delve into the board's role and director's responsibilities in sustainability governance. In highlighting the TCFD recommendations and SGX Listing Rules on sustainability reporting, this session provides a foundation for board directors to drive sustainability compliance and integrate ESG factors into their business strategy.

Course Objectives

1. Highlight the impact and implications of ESG developments on businesses.
2. Examine climate-related risks and opportunities, and how companies can drive value creation through ESG.
3. Outline the TCFD recommendations.
4. Explain SGX requirements on sustainability and climate-related risks reporting.
5. Highlight the reporting timeframe under SGX Listing Rules.
6. Explain the board's and director's roles and responsibilities in driving sustainability compliance and strategy.
